LET IT BECOME KNOWN TODAY THAT RICH SHOULD PAY.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Aug. 23.—The effort to be centered to make those who profit through the war bear the heavy burden of the expense meets with President Wilson's entire approval. White House officials allowed it to become known today.
Leaders on both sides have sought the president's active support, but he has decided to take no open stand.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Aug. 23.—The fight over the $2,000,000,000 revenue bill reached a stage of unprecedented bitterness in the senate today when Senator Simmons charged that the movement to force upward revision of the war taxes had its inspiration in pro-German sources and was part of a deep-laid plot to make the war unpopular. He urged the rejection of the LaFollette amendment proposing sur taxes on incomes above $5,000.

COMPRESS LEASED FOR TEN YEARS; HOT COURT FIGHT BROUGHT TO CLOSE

TWO INJUNCTIONS AND CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS FEATURE RAPID LITIGATION OF PAST THREE DAYS.

GULF CO. RETAINS POSSESSION

RESTRAINING ORDERS GRANTED MONDAY BY BOTH JUDGE KYLE AND JUDGE GRUBBS. DOORS LOCKED, LOCK BROKEN.

Following spirited litigation, featured by two injunctions and contempt proceedings, the lease of the local plant of the Decatur Cotton Compress Company for a period of ten years to C. C. Hanson, of Memphis, and A. F. Churchill, of Savannah, Ga., was announced today as the solution of a legal muddle that has kept attorneys and courts on the quiver all week. Mr. Hanson is the receiver of the Gulf Compress Co. and Mr. Churchill its largest creditor.

The closing down of the big cotton compress for a few days at the beginning of the season resulted from a controversy regarding the expiration of an option held by the Gulf Compress Company for a ten-year renewal of its lease. The Decatur Cotton Compress Company took the position that the right of renewal had been forfeited, while the Gulf people held the opposite view.

Proceedings were first instituted in the Morgan county circuit court when a writ for injunction was filed Sunday by Callahan & Harris, attorneys for the Decatur Cotton Compress Company. The plaintiff prayed the court to restrain the Gulf Company from further operation of the plant and from interference with its alleged possession. Judge Kyle heard the case Monday morning and granted the injunction.

Acting under authority of the court's mandate, officers locked the doors of the office of Supt. L. H. Bullard while he was temporarily absent. Mr. Bullard later broke the lock with a crowbar on advice of his counsel.

The legal representatives of the Gulf Compress Company, Eyster & Eyster, of Albany, and Judge Julian Wilson, of Memphis, were active in the meantime. Judge John C. Eyster made a hurried trip to Birmingham Sunday and filed an application for injunction before Judge Grubbs of the U. S. district court, in which he asked for a restraining order against further disturbance of the possession of the Gulf Compress Company by its officers or agents, and citing the defendants for contempt of the U. S. court for interfering with property in the hands of a receiver of a federal court. The injunction was granted and was set for hearing on August 31 before Judge Grubbs.

The parties to the litigation then went into conference here with the result that the lease was renewed for a period of ten years and the contempt proceedings dropped.

ALBANY MERCHANTS ARE LAYING PLANS FOR BOOSTER TRIP

While no definite action has been taken as yet, it is now almost assured that local merchants will this year make their first "booster trip." The present plan is to assemble a large number of automobiles and make daily excursions into adjacent trade territory, with the view of stimulating closer trade relations. The cars will leave town in the morning, following a parade and band concert, will visit a number of designated points during the day and return here at night. Speeches will be made at the various stops and advertising matter distributed. The trip will likely be made about the middle of September when the roads are good.

Lambeth, postoffice inspector of Jackson, Tenn., at Stantonville Thursday night, Aug. 16.

Mr. Lambeth had made the second trip to Stantonville to investigate alleged controversy between Postmaster Harkins and Mr. Gipson, who had been a rural letter carrier several years.

LOCAL BOARD HAS ALLOWED NEARLY ALL CLAIMS FOR EXEMPTION; APPEAL UP TO THE DISTRICT BOARD

LIST OF THOSE WHO WILL SERVE FOR SURE IS NOW ONLY FIFTY-EIGHT. ALL NOT PASSED ON.

UNLESS APPELLATE BODY ACTS, POSSIBLE THAT EVERY MAN IN COUNTY MAY BE EXAMINED ON FIRST CALL.

The local exemption board today gave out a list of all persons who have been duly and legally called for military service of the United States and who have not been exempted or discharged. In other words the names that follow are those who passed the physical examination and who either claimed no exemption or their exemptions were not granted by the local board.

The board has passed on about two-thirds of the exemption claims. The majority of the claims have been granted so far. Exemption certificates are being made out by the office today and will probably be mailed out to those exempted this afternoon. All exemption claims are being appealed by Chas. H. Eyster, special attorney.

The local board so far has exempted about 400 men, and only a few claims have been disallowed. At this rate, unless the district board overrules the action of the local board, every registered man in Morgan county may have to be called before the quota of 328 men is secured. The list cannot be made complete until all men file their exemption claims and the board passes on them.

The 58 men who will be certain soldiers so far as the local board is concerned are:

RIGA, GATEWAY TO PETROGRAD, IS REPORTED TAKEN

Alarming Rumors Are Rife at Washington, and Cause Grave Apprehension

LANSING DECLINES TO MAKE STATEMENT

Von Hindenburg Said to Be Personally Directing Great Offensive in North

(International News Service.)
Copenhagen, Aug. 23.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg is reported in German advices today to be directing personally the German offensive against the Russians southeast of Riga. Von Hindenburg went to the eastern front several days ago.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Aug. 23.—Definite rumors of further disasters to the Russian military forces including one report that the Germans have taken the city of Riga from which an assault can be directed against Petrograd, were widely circulated here today. They were unconfirmed, but caused deep apprehension when taken in connection with the report that Von Hindenburg has launched the greatest offensive of the war in the north against the demoralized Russian armies.

Officials made no effort to disguise their fears that the general situation in Russia again is very serious. It was admitted that dispatches from Ambassador Francis contained both political and military information of the utmost importance. The state department is withholding the information and Secretary Lansing has declined to discuss the Russian situation.

A report that Russia has asked for both Japanese and American troops again was widely current here today.

BARRING OF ORDERS PROBABLY ERROR

(International News Service.)

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 23.—There was a noticeable reticence among secret order men today regarding the refusal of the war department to permit any order except the Knights of Columbus to erect recreation buildings at Camp Gordon. Officials of the various orders declined to discuss the matter for publication. Officers of the Knights of Columbus declined to discuss the matter further than to say that they knew nothing except what appeared in the papers. "We do not presume to know the reasons for orders issued by the war department," declared a prominent Knights of Columbus organizer today. The opinion was expressed in some quarters that the order was the result of a mistake on the part of some bureau chief and that it will soon be revoked.

ACCORDING TO DISPATCHES RECEIVED AT ZURICH FROM BERLIN.

(International News Service.)
Zurich, Aug. 23.—Germany, speaking for her allies as well as herself, will return an answer to the Vatican supporting Pope Benedict's peace proposal. At least that was strongly indicated in advices received here from Berlin today.

Since the meeting of the main committee of the Reichstag in Berlin on Tuesday, Chancellor Michaelis has been conferring with political leaders and prominent members representing all shades of political opinion. Domestic reforms and the peace offer were the sole subjects discussed.

COAL PRICES ARE EFFECTIVE NOW

PRESIDENT LETS IT BE KNOWN THAT THERE WILL BE NO DILLY DALLYING.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Aug. 23.—Uncertainty over the coal situation was somewhat cleared today when it developed that President Wilson's new prices become effective at once. The president renewed his personal campaign to alleviate coal conditions today, calling off all except coal engagements and a brief conference with Viscount Ishii, the special Japanese ambassador, and shutting himself up to thresh out the many-sided fuel problem.

A GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY

CONFRONTS DISTRICT BOARD.

The district board charged with the duty of saying the final word in all cases where exemption from army service is claimed, except in exceptional cases that may be appealed to the president, is confronted with a grave responsibility so far as Morgan county is concerned. It is apparent that practically all of the claims for exemption have been passed along from the zone of local influence to the colder lights of higher authority. Upon the decision of the appellate board in many individual cases must depend the effectiveness of the selective draft as a means for raising a national army.

It is not to the credit of Morgan county that of more than 400 men who were included in the draft, less than 15 per cent passed the physical examinations and failed to claim exemption. This does not compare favorably with the record of one county in Kentucky that had a perfect score—132 men examined and 132 men accepted. It does not necessarily mean that there is a deficiency in patriotism. It signifies, instead, that being shrewd Americans the drafted men are taking advantage of technical opportunities in many instances to get an absolutely square deal. That is, those who are patriotic and willing to fight for their country are placing themselves on the same basis as those who are "slackers" and are leaving it to the selection board to pass upon claims that come within the letter if not the spirit of the exemption regulations. These men feel that they would be unjust to themselves to jump into the fight and by doing so take the places of others of less conscience who are equally as able-bodied.

Since the matter of exemptions has been shunted along to the district board, it certainly is the duty of that body to look carefully into the merits of individual claims. If many of the claims for exemption are not disallowed it is entirely possible that Morgan county will do no more than secure its first call quota of 329 men from a registered population of 3212.

A few of the hot heads over in Georgia called a state convention for the purpose of opposing the draft. Tom Watson was slated as the orator of the occasion. The federal authorities sounded a warning and Tom and the delegates stayed at home. Tom may be deficient in loyalty to his country, but he is not without intelligence. Besides, his business instinct told him that it was hardly worth while to further advertise the Jeffersonian, now that it has been barred from the mails.

Kentucky boys made a splendid record in enlistment and physical quality and patriotism. In Larue county of that state the first 132 men examined passed, and not a single claim to exemption was made. This was Larue county's quota for the national army and is the county in which Abe Lincoln was born. In Breathitt county (Bloody Breathitt) 213 was the quota and there were from this county 312 enlistments before the draft. Lee county, Kentucky, also exceeded its quota of drafted men by enlistment before the call was made.

The sporting scribes tell us that Billy Scott, one of the leading baseball pitchers of the Southern League, stands a chance to be exempted from the draft because he has an imperfect ankle. This sounds like a reel from the comics.

With the arrival of the Japanese mission in America, we may expect those old time alarmists who sighted a yellow peril once a week, to again come out of hiding.

The public may be so well pleased with the regulation of coal prices that it will move to make it permanent.

The big peace noise just now is heard on the western and Italian fronts.

Austinville Church
Holding Revival

The revival at the Baptist church of Austinville is growing in interest daily. The people are pleased with the visiting preacher, the Rev. J. C. Vandiver, of Tensell, Ala. Pastors Brock and Neill of the Baptist and Methodist churches respectively are doing all they can to make the meeting a success. In fact, all the leading church-going people of the town feel that religious prosperity lies at the base of real prosperity and are co-operating with the preachers to make Austinville the peer of any town morally and religiously. All are cordially invited to attend. Services will continue throughout the week at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

FOURTH ALABAMA DEPICTED.

The Fourth Alabama infantry, now known as the 167th U. S. infantry, will be the first Alabama unit to leave this state for war service in Europe. It has been made part of the 42nd, the "Rainbow Division," soon to be sent to France.

This gives added interest to an illustrated review of the Fourth regiment, infantry national guard of Alabama, just published by Edmundson & Jennings, 51 West Jeff Davis avenue, Montgomery, Ala., which contains photographs of all the companies, the regimental and battalion commanders, and a roster of the entire organization, including the men recently selected from the other Alabama regiments to bring the Fourth infantry to the new war strength requirements.

A copy of the Illustrated Review may be seen at this office and another is exhibited at Thompson's Drug Store.

Circuit Court Has
Adjourned for Week

The Morgan county circuit court adjourned this morning until Monday. The court disposed of several other land cases this week, most of which were decided by the juries favorably to the city of Albany. The remaining fifteen cases for this week were compromised by Attorney Chas. Eyster for the land company in favor of the city's assessment. Next week's docket is full of similar cases.

Negros are Fined;
Roll, Fined Again

The Decatur mayor's court at the yesterday session fined eight negroes $8.60 each for gaming. When court opened this morning three of the same negroes faced the mayor for the same offense and were promptly given the accustomed fine. Six in all were fined this morning.

BIG HARTSELLE REVIVAL IS GROWING DAILY IN INTERESTTent Meeting Began Last Sunday and Will Continue Indefinitely

Hartselle, Aug. 23.—(Special.)—The big tent meeting at Hartselle being conducted by Browning-Chamberlain and party opened under the most auspicious circumstances Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The tent and rostrum were beautifully decorated by the decorating committee in charge of Mrs. C. L. Lee, American flags are principal features in decorating, and red and white flowers in great profusion carry out the color scheme. The choir was in its place, under the able leadership of its musical director, J. H. Chamberlain, and rendered great assistance in the song service. They also rendered a carol selection from the song book, entitled "Sail On."

The attendance was splendid and a sympathetic hearing was assured Mr. Browning when he began to speak. His subject was "What It Means to Be a Christian," and he took his text from the three places in the Bible where the word "Christian" occurs.

In the first place he showed that Christianity was a type of character, and not a mere profession. The next place, where we find the word "Christian" in the Bible, is where Paul was before King Agrippa, and was given an opportunity to speak in his defense. Paul, however, did not speak for himself, but told how he became converted to Christianity, and so was a witness for Christ.

The next place that the word "Christian" is found it teaches that we must witness for Christ.

The last place where the word "Christian" is found shows that a Christian is one called of God to be, to do, and to suffer the will of God.

In the afternoon Mr. Chamberlain met all the children in the community to organize a junior choir, and is quite sure that the children will furnish some very pleasing music before the meeting is over.

The subject of the discourse at the evening service was "The Greatest Commandment, and the Greatest Sin." The congregation at this service was even larger than at the morning service, and from service to service the interest has been growing, and the congregations becoming larger and more united.

larger, until last night the great tent was almost filled to its capacity.

Services are being held every morning at 10 o'clock for just one hour, being dismissed promptly at 11 o'clock. This is done in order that the business men and others may make engagements immediately after 11 in the morning, and be sure that they can keep them.

In the evening, the song service begins promptly at 7:30 o'clock. These services are very bright and inspiring, and the people enter into the singing heartily. To one who loves music, it is a thrilling experience to hear the great congregation in song, with the notes of Mr. Chamberlain's trombone ringing out above the voices.

Wednesday night the junior choir, composed of about two hundred children, rendered several selections. Perhaps the most pleasing of these was one that little Hal Barcliff, son of Paul W. Barcliff, chairman of the music committee, sang the verses of "In the Garden," with Mr. Chamberlain, while the choir joined in the choruses. Young Hal has a wonderfully sweet voice, and splendidly controlled for such a young singer.

The services will continue daily at 10 o'clock in the morning, except on Saturday morning, and every night at 7:30.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mr. Browning will deliver his famous sermon to men, entitled "The Phoenix." According to press reports, this is one of the greatest addresses now being given to men by any evangelist in the country, and all men of this and surrounding counties, between the ages of 14 and 100 should make every effort to be present. Mr. Chamberlain is planning some special music for this service.

Delegations are being expected from surrounding towns and counties every day and from the way this meeting is starting out it is not difficult to predict that it will be the greatest meeting ever held in North Alabama. The people of Hartselle extend to the people of all surrounding counties a cordial invitation to attend at these services, and will do their best to make all visitors welcome.

Mrs. Alma Norman Nearly Prostrated
CONDITION SERIOUS BEFORE RELIEF CAME.
"I was right on the verge of nervous prostration," said Mrs. Alma Norman, of 25th and West End avenue Nashville, "and I'm most scared out of my wits before my relief came."
"I was dreadfully alarmed over my condition and my work worried me so much each day that there were times when I just wanted to sit down and cry. I was all unstrung, was in a stew all the time when I tried to work."
"But it's all over now. I am all right again. It was suggested that I take Vin Hepatica, but I was skeptical as I had tried so many things without results. Finally, I was persuaded to try it. And I did three weeks ago. The effect was magical. I must say that I am completely recovered. Thank goodness for the day that Vin Hepatica was brought to Nashville."
There are thousands of other women just in the same condition as was Mrs. Alma Norman. They are all unstrung, they just can't keep from crying, because of their nervous condition. The slightest noise frightens them. They are sufferers from constipation, indigestion, sleeplessness, are all weak and run down.
They need a cleansing out and toning up of the system. They need to take Vin Hepatica, the Universal System Purifier and Tonic. It is Nature's own medicine, made from the roots and herbs Nature has provided to heal the sick and afflicted. It is a combination of eight of the best herbal remedies known to medical science.

Mitchell is Heard at Revival Service

Visiting Minister Spoke Last Night at the Y. M. C. A.

The light rain of yesterday afternoon had so dampened the benches that the open air revival of last night was held on the long balcony of the Y. M. C. A. building. Rev. W. C. Mitchell, of St. Louis, preached the sermon, which was clear and well presented. Mr. Mitchell's association in the past with W. E. Bridgerwolf, the nation-wide evangelist, was in evidence throughout the sermon. The speaker warned his hearers against the day "that Christ should lay aside his meditative robes and ascend to the judgment seat." The discourse was based on the Revelation account of the final judgment. The speaker's subject was, "Opening the Books of Life and Death."

Besides the service of Mr. Mitchell as singer, last night's meeting had the additional service of the shop quartette, composed of B. H. Cartis, Elmer McCulla, Earnest McCulla, and Geo. Evans. Mrs. H. O. Troup assisted by Miss Edith Worthington, had charge of the instrumental music.

The revival will continue each night and afternoon of this week, if not longer. The afternoon meetings are held at 3 p. m. at the Central Methodist church.

SECOND AVENUE

The Empty House

You have all heard the story of the empty house, and about there being nothing in it. The same is often times true of a vacant house, that is why it is vacant. Most vacant houses have plenty of room and lots of fine holes, but most tenants want less fine holes and more heat.

The very quickest way to do away with the "FOR RENT" sign, is to invest in a good Steam Heating System that will make satisfied tenants, by keeping every nook and corner in the house comfortable, as satisfied tenants yield good incomes to the owners.

A modern Steam System can be easily attended by any member of the family that could feed a stove.

If you are going to build new houses for rent you can almost save the price of a Steam Heating System by putting out extra chimneys and mantels. If you have an old vacant one, put a modern Heating Plant in it and rent it. Heating time is coming, get ready.

Does Renting Pay?

First we will take the man who is paying $15.00 per month. We figure ten years because there is any number of men in Albany and Decatur who have been renting that long.

Twelve months rent at $15.00 is $ 180.00

Ten years' rent at $180.00 is $1,800.00

What have you to show for it? (Wait until you miss a month.) A big sign hung on the door—"FOR RENT," by some real estate man or an individual who just had a little more nerve than you had ten years ago.

You have rented ten years and paid for a house and lot which is still there—so are you, and still paying $15.00 per month to get to stay.

Let us explain our Monthly Payment Plan and help you to be the owner of a HOME, not a PLACE.

Make Home Building Your Ideal

Have an ideal. Set your mind on a goal and by persistent and consistent efforts attain it. Few of us attain a goal without making a sacrifice either in pleasure, time or money. But the appreciation of the reward fully repays us for the sacrifice we make. Many of us never have an ideal—we are too lazy. It takes energy to fight our way through the many besetting obstacles. Too many of us follow the line of least resistance, contenting ourselves with the easiest things; letting the higher, nobler purposes of life go by default simply because of our laziness and aimlessness.

"Have in place of aimless reverie a resolute aim, and back it with an indomitable will," says a famous writer.

To those with families or dependent ones, home building should be their ideal—a goal easily reached if we put back our energy with our will power.

Yes, we may have to make sacrifices to build a home. But, is not the reward commensurate to the efforts expended? Put your whole heart into the ideal of home ownership and your aspiration will be inspiration.

The making of one sacrifice to attain your goal will inspire you to make another, each forming a stepping stone over which you will cross the sluggish brook of "aimless reverie."

Home builders fired with progressive ambitions—stimulated with lofty ideals, and actuated by altruistic desires for community betterment—are citizens worthy of our city. Let's encourage this class of citizenship.

Everything in Hardware for Builders

It is the most important to select the best hardware for that new home or building. That brings you here, for we make a point of carrying nothing but the best builder's hardware that adds not only to the beauty of a building but to its selling value as well.

The Sash and door Locks, Hinges, Etc., are a very small part of a building, but will repay many times for the cost and trouble of proper selection. Cheap goods are a continual source of trouble and worry.

We are prepared to name interesting prices on the complete hardware for any style of building from the humble cottage to the largest office building.

Yes sir! We also sell the best building Tools—all moderately priced.
